error on the Maga Sanitized - Approved For Release : CIA

Chicago Daily Tribune

THE WORLD'S GREATEST NEWSPAPER FOUNDED JUNE 10, 1847

FOIAb3b

CPYRGHT

Nothing should be allowed to interfere with the rango increof the prisoners taken by Castro at the Bay of Pigs. President. Kennedy lately has blamed himself publicly for the mismanagement of the invasion that resulted in the capture and imprisonment of these unfortunate men. It is only right, therefore, that he and his colleagues in the administration take an interest in freeing the victims.

AISING THE RANSOM

once the men have been released the time will have come to inquire into the manner of collecting the ransom.

Various news disparches have said that the men are to be traded for 12 million dollars in food and drugs. The food it may be assumed, will come from the government's surplus stores. The drugs it being provided by a number of pharmaceutical houses scattered around the country. One houses scattered around the country. One of them has acknowledged that its share amounts to more than 2 million, dollars.

The one thing that is altogether clear is that the drug houses are not in the business of rescuing imprisoned Cubans. It must be an error—and it may be a politically inspired error—to describe the medicines and hospital supplies given to the Red Cross for delivery to Castro as "contributions" of "charitable donations." The sums involved are altogether too large to make the explanation plausible. Officers who have autily their companies. cers who rive 'away their companies' property on any such scale would lay themselves open to stockholders' suits for recovery and to commitment to an applicable. asylum.

drug houses have been promised tax money may have been raised in this savings that will compensate them for way but anything approaching 53 million the value of the goods sent to Cuba. As seems out of the question. Compare it is, a corroration must pay 32 per cent of its net profit in income taxes. If the $16,175,000 goal of the Chicago Commuor its net proint in income taxes. If the drug houses were allowed to deduct from inty Fund, which has not yet been reached despite intensive campaigning in a to the Red Cross the tax saving might be large enough to cover the cost of the goods denvered, especially if the values were somewhat exaggerated. This are the victims are free the American rangement would work only if the comchallenged.

might serve, also, as a powerful induce ment.

We know that the whole 53 million was Several explanations have been offered not raised thru the private contributions that might make sense. One is that the of Cubans in extle and others. Much

Once the victims are free, the American danies were given a firm promise that people will expect an accounting of how the income tax deduction would not be the ransom money was raised. The mere possibility that some or much of it came, A pledge to the drug houses of immu-directly or indirectly, from the federal nity from investigation and prosecution treasury gives Congress all the justification it may need for investigating transactions.